Special ticketing guideline due to COVID-19

The following policy applies to all guests (except those on purely domestic itineraries) who are/were booked to travel after 01Feb2020, and have tickets issued on WY ticket stock (910).

DATE CHANGES: (for any tickets issued until 31May2020)

- Two free date changes are allowed within the validity of the ticket. Bookings should be made in the same RBD as originally booked.
 - If outbound sectors are rebooked, and the ticketed fare is no longer filed, ticket may be reissued against originally ticketed fare.
- Where the original RBD is not available, rebooking in a higher RBD is permitted however fare difference should be collected. Date change fee is still waived.
- Where the guest is not able to commit to a new travel date currently, ticket can be kept open/unassociated. Re-association to new travel dates should be done through Oman Air ticket offices/call centres only.
- Tickets issued in E class on/before 03Mar2020 for all routings except GCC-ISC v.v., intra-GCC and domestic should either be reissued against originally ticketed fare, or should be reissued against an O class fare with no ADC.
- The above guidelines should be applied to all sectors (online, codeshare, interline, domestic) of an itinerary regardless of operating carrier.

REROUTE: (for any tickets issued until 18Mar2020)

- One free re-route to any Oman Air destination is permitted (including destinations served by an Oman Air codeshare service operated by another carrier). Any difference in fare should be collected, but no other change fees should be collected.
- In cases where flights have been cancelled either on a given day or for an ongoing period, re-route via another Oman Air gateway within the same region is permitted. Interline partners to be utilised are as follow:

LH (book L,Q,S economy, D,Z business)	AI (book Q T U V W economy, D,J business)
